FREE SCHOOL TOURS!

Supplement your classroom studies of Northwest History at Fort Walla Walla Museum.
Over 3,400 students, teachers, and chaperones have visited the Museum in 2014!

Guided tours of the exhibits, displays, and grounds are available year round for your students. Learn about:

- ✦ Fur trappers, traders, and Mountain Men
 - ✦ Lewis and Clark
 - ✦ Indian peoples in this area of Washington, Oregon, and Idaho
 - ✦ Indian artifacts
 - ✦ Pioneer settlement in our region
 - ✦ Military history of Fort Walla Walla
- The roots of agriculture in the Walla Walla Valley

In addition to our permanent displays we currently have a special exhibition called "Walla Walla and the Civil War" which displays Civil War pieces and Walla Walla's relationship to the war through familial ties and artifacts.

Featuring more than 400 different artifacts primarily from private collections; this is believed to be the largest Civil War exhibit in the northwest.

Fort Walla Walla Museum hours are:

Now through October - - - Daily, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

November 1 through March 29 - - - Monday through Friday, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Please allow 2 hours for the docent-led tour. Students, parents and faculty are welcome to visit the Museum store which is filled with an assortment of educational toys, a large variety of books, and souvenirs.

A preorder form for store items is available for you, your students and parents to download from our website or can be printed at your request.

Sponsorship for our 2014 School Tours program has been provided by:

Boise Paper, a Packaging Corporation of America company;
Pacific Power Foundation;

Fort Walla Walla Museum welcomes your visit!

We would like to give you the chance to get ahead of the game.
Use these forms to preorder and prepay for your class' souvenirs.

Attached are:

- Three forms separated by themes your class will encounter in the museum: Civil War, Pioneer, and Old West. Feel free to use them or create your own. If you are interested in other items, please contact the museum store for availability and price details.
- A Price List that you can use to fill in the price appropriate for your state. Some teachers find it useful to round the prices so that they are even--with any extra money going toward a class fund.
- A Classroom Order Form to tally up your class' total order.

Please fill in and return the "Classroom Order Form" and the Payment Options below to the museum at least two weeks before your visit. Then simply pick up your items in the store the day you arrive.

Thank you!
